County Board Discusses Integration With Teachers

Local County School board members, with County Superintentendent, H. H. Pruett, acting as spokesman, approached the difficult and much talked of problem of Integration to a group of Milam school teachers Monday morning in the County Courthouse.

Pruett fore-warned those present that he did not have the answer, that apparently no one did, but that the board was ready in any way possible to help the schools make everybody happy.

He stated that appeasement was not the answer, since it is out of the question, the supreme court took the decision of appeasement away with its new segregation laws. The law of the land is one thing, he said, and the way in which it is carried out is another.

One of the most redeeming factors in the difficult situation Pruett stated is the very high type negro citizenship found in Milam county. They wish to cause no trouble, he stated, except they do expect to have their inherent rights considered.

He said that since the question arose he has made some very interesting trips around to many of the colored schools in the district and found some very revealing facts. There are very good and very bad schools over the district, and added that if any trouble arose, or if there was any dissatisfaction among the negro population it would come from those bad school areas. He specifically brought out that Rockdale has an excellent new negro school system, with newly built $250,000 facilities and that Cameron does particularly well by it's negro students, but some of the smaller communities have few facilities, and these are poor, for the negro student.

Several corrective measures were brought out by Pruett, the first and most favorable solution was to get the negroes out of the poor rural schools and put them into the better schools, which would bring their facilities and the white student facilities up to the same level. After some thought he added that although this plan sounded feasible, and transportation would be provided if this solution were accepted, it might not prove acceptable to some of the colored students. They might resent being asked to transfer and prefer to remain where they are. If this is true, Pruett opined, then the only thing to do hy ae. If ths is true, Pruett pined, then the only thing to do is to let them remain where they are.

He reminded school personnel

Preliminary Work of City Charter Completed; Final Review Soon

Complete preparatory work on the newly rtvised Cameron City Charter has been revised by the Commission elected by the people and now all that is left is for Jack Prescott, local attorney, to complete assembling the work for the final approval or disapproval of the Commission.

E. A. Perrin, publicity chairman of the group, stated that Prescott should be through with the final details by next week; at which time the Charter Commission will meet to review their work.

Following their decision, should they approve the Charter as submitted, authorization for printing will be given and a copy of the proposed charter will be mailed to every qualified voter. After this copy has been in their hands (the voters) for 30 days, allowing them ample timt to thoroughly digest its contents, an election will be called .... and then in two weeks Cameron voters will go to the polls and vote whether or not Cameron will operate under a charter.

"The responsibility of the final decision," Perrin stated, "Will fall on each individual who will receive a copy of the Charter. It is our hope that they will thoroughly read, so that they will thoroughly understand all phases of the many ways in which the Charter will aid our city."

County Commissioners Discuss Right-of-Way - Pleasant Hill Road

Members of the Chamber of Commerce Good Roads Committee with E. A. Perrin as spokesman, met with the members of the Commissioners Court at their regular meeting Monday in the County courtroom.

Their primary aim, according to Perrin, was to find out how the right-of-way acquisition on Highway 36 from the Y three miles out of Cameron to Milano is progressing; and if the job would be under contract anytime soon.

Judge Charles C. Smith, Jr., pointed out that there were several projects underway, with the bridge across 179 and 190 taking precedence over the Milano portion of 36. He advised the committee, however, that approximatly 50 per cent of the acquisition is complete on that strech of road but further work has had to be postponed until the adoption of a new budget. He stated that due to several unexpected road expenditures the commissioners ran short of funds this year. He explained that the budget is being prepared this month and will be presented next month for approval.

When asked when they expected to complete the purchase of the right-of-way Smith answered that they planned to have all of the property needed by about September 1, barring complications.

He then asked Perrin about the right-of-way in Cameron on Highway 36, which has been in the fire for some time. Perrin told the commissioners that thus far five deeds have been acquired out of the 14 necessary, with one more promised and another just waiting to see if the price offered is comparable to others along the section.

Perrin said that, other than procrastination, the city seems willing to follow through on the venture.

Smith explained that the reason he asked is that there is a rumor in Austin that the project is some seven years past due and they plan to detour around Cameron if action is not taken. He stated the position of the county plainly with, "This action will not only ruin Cameron it will bankrupt Milam County".

Perrin reminded that things of this nature move slowly but that the Good Roads Committee has received at least verbal satisfaction, but did not know if action satisfaction was forth-coming.

He then stated that it would be impossible for asking for righ of-way on 77 until the 36 project is completed. Smith informed the committee that the 77 right - of-way spoken of had already been approved and field notes were being made.

Smith added for the benefit of the committee, that the commissioners were both amused and concerned since property owners, who rent their land for $5.00 an acre, ask as much as $300 to $400 if they (the county) wishes to purchase even a few feet for a new highway.

Perrin laughingly stated that this was also true in the city of Cameron.

Next to appear before the commission was a group of men representing families in the Pleasant Hill Community. They stated that it was their understanding that the commissioners court was considering closing the road in that section and they wished to register their complaint. Judge Smith assured them that a petition to that affect had not been presented, and if it was, the interested parties would be contacted.

Local Radio Station Receives Building Permit

Construction to Begin Soon And Broadcasting To Start In September

After a series of legal mishaps and delays Milam County is proudly looking forward to the erection of it's own radio Station.
it's own radio Station.

Milton Brown, publisher of The Cameron Herald, who is in partnership with E. Glenn Abercrombie in the station, announced today that word was received Thursday that the Federal Communications Commission had granted their construction permit.

The 500 watt station will be located on the property next to the Narvie Caperton home on highway 36 just east of Cameron. The station and the transmitter will be located at the same place, with broadcasting at 1330 on local radio dials.

Brown stated that construction will begin as soon as possible with plans made to start broadcasting in September.

The station will be independent of any broadcasting system and will use the Associated Press news-service.

Broadcasting radius will cover a wide area, with service going from Waco to Austin, and to the east of Cameron, from Bryan to Killeen.

Abercrombie, who is now with radio station WAVU in Albertville, Alabama for the past number of years, plans to move to Cameron and handle the technical operation of the station. He will move to Cameron, with his family, within the next six weeks, after the ground-work of the new station building is completed and supervise the installation of the radio equipment.

A. C. Mitchan Receives Scout St. George Medal

Albert C. Mitchan, scouter, committeeman and advisior of the local Boy Scouts, was recently awarded the St. George Medal, the highest award presented to Catholic Scouts.

The presentation of the medal to Mr. Mitchan and L. J. Bolmanski, scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 383, Bryan, took place at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Bryan with the Very Rev. George J. Duda, pastor of St. Monica's Catholic Church, Cameron, and the Austin Diocesan Scout Chaplain, making the presentation on behalf of the Most Rev. Louis J. Reicher, bishop of Austin.

The award was given to these two scouters in recognition of their faithful services to the Boy Scouts and Explorers in their respectative areas.

The Saint George award is the highest award given to Catholic scouters. The receipients of the awards was suggested and approved at the thirteen National Conference of Diocesan chaplains at San Antonio, Texas January 26 and 27, 1954.

Mr. Mitchan, owner and operator of the Mitchan Motor Co. and Auto Supply in Cameron, and Mr. Bolmanski, owner of the Van Dyke Studio in Bryan, have contributed much to scouting and have spent some time each year at a Boy Scout camporee.

St. George is the patron saint of Catholic Scouts and therefore the National Committee on Catholic Scouting designed an appropriate medal to be given to eligible Catholic Scouters.

Only three men from the Austin Diocese received this award this year. Besides Mr. Mitchan and Mr. Bolmanski, the other receiptant was Charlie A. Bretung a St. Edwards University, Austin. The award was presented by the Very Rev. James J. O'Brien, C. S. C., who was delegated by Right Rev. L. J. Reicher, bishop of Austin. At the same ceremony the Very Rev. Duda of Cameron presented the Altare Dei Award to fourteen scouters and explorers.

Farmers Given Chance To Win $50 to $100

Farmers are being given a chance to win from $50 to $100 at no expense this year in the Cameron Chamber of Commerce Cotton Contest.

No entry fee is being charged, all farmers have to do is fill out an entry blank, available at the Chamber of Commerce office, the County Agent's office, the Farmer's Home Administration office or the Milam County Farm Bureau office.

C of C officials urged all farmers wishing to paricipate to enter their names as soon as possible.

Contestants will be judged on 3 major points: 50 per cent yield; cent improved farm practices.

Bollweevils Are Gaining; Control Necessary Now

Recent field inspections for cotton insect damage has revealed that the bollweevils are gaining in number. In fields where a good early season control program was carried out, spraying three or four times, the count is still low — about 10 percent or less damage. Some fields where no poisoning has been done showed as much as 50 per cent damage.

With the wonderful prospects for a good crop that we have this year it becomes even more important that we control the cotton insects. In past years the drough has cut our production. Now with the highest survival of bollweevils in the past ten years, farmers stand a chance of having severe losses from insects.

Make regular checks of your field each week to determine the extent of damages. Everyone should be well informed on how to make the checks; however, if they are in doubt the F. H. A. office would be glad to help. This is a critical period in cotton production, so keep on the watch and if insects move into the cotton be ready to move in with the poison.

If you are ten days late it could mean the loss of a crop — Use your 1955 "Cotton Insect Control Guide" and follow the recommendation for insecticides to use and dossage per acre.

Southland Elevators Expect Arrival Of Grain This Week; Mill Completed

The Southland Elevators in Cameron are working fast and hard to get their bonded warehouse n condiiton to accept grain for storage that will not be sold immediately on the open market.

Equipment is arriving fast and is being installed upon arrival. The huge blower which arrived Friday and the aeration system is now in the process of being placed in the building in readiness for the first receivals of milo, which is expected to begin the later part of this week, according to Guy Atkins, the new manager of the local elevators. Atkins home is in Waxahachie where he has been associated with Southland for many years. Officials also announced that W. E. Saunders Southland laboratories is expected to arrive next week. He will handle all the moisture testing and grading and will also issue the bonded warehouse receipts.

J. D. Tate, Sr., the local superintendent of the mill, has been in charge of all the new operations and installation of the machinery, assisted by Dick Taylor, Chief Traveling Engineer for Southland.

Atkins, who visited with Bassel Wilson, local grain puchaser who instigated the new industry to Cameron, advised that the elevator will accept grain on a first come, first served basis, with no storage being reserved. Wilson stated that he felt there would be ample space for anyone in Milam County desiring storage space and advised farmers to just bring their grain in for starage when it is ready for the market.

He also urged that farmers let the grain get good and ripe before cotting it, as it cannot go into bonded storage if above 13 per cent moisture is contained in the grain.

Texas Farm, Ranch Land Values Up 2 Percent An Acre

Purchase price of Texas farm and ranch land in 1954 was two percent more than in 1953, or an average of $70.20 an acre.

Although this slight gain represented a new price level, the number of sales dropped to the lowest level since 1940 and the acreage transferred was the smallest in land market record history.

"Continued drouth, decreases in agricultural prices, acreage allotments and 'tight' holdings of land tended to depress land market activity," William G. Adkins, agricultural economist at Texas A. & M College, explained. Fewer Veterans Land Board purchases and modifications of that program helped push the sales volume down.

Attempts to enlarge units, demand for irrigated acreages, mineral activity and urban and industrial development were factors tending to increase market activity.

Adkins reported that owner-operators were the principle buyers in 1954 and farm size continued to grow. Tenants made only 10 percent of the purchases. "Family type" farm units continued to be in strong demand, bringing premium prices.

Land price increases were most significant in the Panhandle wheat, High Plains cotton and Lower Rio Grande Valley areas. Price declines were notable in the Upper Rio Grande Valley irrigated area, the Post-Oak country and in the Rolling Plains.

300 Bales of Hay Lost in Barmore Farm Fire Sunday

Two fires were reported and extinguished by the local Fire Department during the later part of the past week.

The first was a grass fire, started apparently by burning trash, at the W. A. L. Robinson home in the Green Addition.

Joe Richter, fire chief, reported that the fire was put out in short order with no damage done.

The second alarm was for the Roy Barmore home located close to Maysfield. All damage was to the barn, where he had approximately 300 bales of hay stored, with almost total destruction. Fire men stated that there was no one living there at the time and the only solution they have arrived at is that the hay must have been stored slightly green, causing a combustion.

Braves, Yankees Tied For Lead In Little League Program

Little Leaguers played two "hot" games at the ball field Tuesday night, with the White Sox winning their game 7 to four over the Indians and the Yankies sneaking a four to three win over the Braves in a six inning game.

The first game, between the White Sox and the Indians started at 7:30 p. m. with Eisfeldt catching and Lucky pitching for the winners. Battery for the losing Indians was Heitman catching and B Griswold pitching.

After the first inning the score was tied up with each team scoring one run, the White Sox soared ahead in the second inning with four runs scored to the Indians none. In the third inning each team scored two runs, after which the Indians held the Soxs with no more runs for the remainder of the game, and score their only other run in the fifth.

In the second game, with Braves fighting to hold their one game lead and the Yankies eager for a tie, the game was tied up three to three in the fifth inning, throwing the boys into another round of play. The tie was wiped out when the Yankies shoved in another run, Walston, who was on third, ran in to home for the winning run on a slow roller by Fikes down the third base line.

Coaches of the boys reported it to be one of the best pitching duels of the season, with Edmondson pitching for the Braves and Fikes for the Yankies. Catching for the Braves was Veazy and Pate was behind the plate for the Yanks. The only home run of the game was hit by Kirk in the fifth inning, which was, incidentally, the run which tied up the ballgame.

Their next games will be Monday night, July 11, with the Braves playing the White Sox at 7:30 and the Yankies and the Indians meeting at 8:30.

Standings to date are: Braves, won three, lost one; Yankies, won three, lost one; White Sox, won two, lost two and the Indians, lost four.

Neither Rain Nor Hail ... Nor Broken Boxes!

Red Fowler, local R.F.D. mailman, got an English car—with a right-hand drive so he can stuff mailboxes from behind the wheel.

"It's great!" Red reports. "But it would work a lot better if all box holders would follow regulations. A mailbox should be 40 inches high, on the right of the road ... within reaching distance from a car window. If one is knocked down, the owner should make repairs pronto."

Come to think of it, Red is pretty good about his obligations—delivering packages, supplying stamps, cashing money orders—saving us trips to the Post Office. Let's fix up those boxes so he can get his chores done fast.

From where I sit, obligations always work both ways. For instance, I figure that I'm obliged to respect your right to enjoy your favorite beverage—be it coffee, tea, beer, buttermilk or whatever. Why? Because I'd expect you to do the same for me. The Golden Rule should be followed "to the letter" by everyone.

Polio, Arthritis Research Receives Boost With $2,000 Grant From TSCC

Research which may lead to new hope for victims of polio, arthritis, and other joint-crippling diseases got a financial boost this week when Dr. G. W. N. Eggers of John Sealy hospital in Galveston received a $2,000.00 grant from the Texas Society for Crippled Children. Presenting the check for the Easter Seal organization was Mrs. Thomas A. McCarthy, leader in its work in Galveston county.

"We are trying to find the best way to treat joint stiffness in human beings", is the simple description Dr. Eggers gives of the important work he and his staff are doing at the Galveston medical center.

Dr. Eggers is believed to be the first to study various ways of getting an immobilized joint back into use. He is unique in this respect, as earlier experimenters have studied only the immobilized joint, with no attempt to re-mobilize it.

Since 1953 the Galveston doctor and his research team have first made immovable, and then remobilized, the knee joints of scores of white rats. Following an operation in which a plastic strut is fastened to the leg bone of a rat, causing its knee joint to stiffen, Dr. Eggers and his helpers experiment with different methods of remobilizing the joint. Observation of the rats' progress and degrees of recovery in the laboratory is expected to lead to improved methods of treatment for crippled children and adults.

As an indication of the projects scope, and of the careful and detailed study involved, Dr. Eggmore years will be required to complete his work.

The Texas Society for Crippled Children is a non-profit statewide organization of affiliated county societies dedicated to the welfare and development of crippled children. Its work is supported by public contributions.

Mrs. George Rankin's Daughter Injured In Car Accident Thursday

Mrs. Rankin's daughter, Mrs. Pauline Cummings who moved to Odessa three weeks ago was in a car accident Thursday. The car in which she was riding was completely demolished when it collided with another car.

Folk Festival To Be Free Feature During Waco Fair

Waco — Abounding in color and in entertainment a folk festival will be a big feature of the Heart O'Texas Fair in Waco, Oct. 1 - 7. The festival will include old-time fiddling, square dancing and the singing of the Western and folk songs.

"The fair, besides serving as a show-window for the finest of livestock and for modern industry and commerce, wishes to offer a picture of the typically Texas amusements which delighted our fathers and grandfathers," said Kay Lance special events committee chairman. "The old-time fiddle music and songs will be interesting and educational to the younger generation and will kindle happy memories in the minds of the older folk".

New officers to be installed are Bassel Wilson as Noble Grand and Albert Edmonds as Vice-grand. Other officers will be appointed at this time. Present vice grand is Bassel Wilson. Polio or Not? That Is The Clinic Question

Two contradictory stories on the illness of two Buckholts youths were expounded this week. One report, from one of the attending physicians, was that the girls hospitalized for observation for polio, were never proved to be polio cases and had since been released.

He added that one adult woman 45 years of age, contracted violent headaches the day after she arrived in Cameron and was definitely proved to have an acute case of polio. She was returned to a Houston hospital.

The other report, from Dr. John Bryson, head of the Milam County Health Unit, was that all three of the cases had been reported to him as being clinically proved as polio.

Next Ten Days Critical For Maturing Crops

The next ten days are most critical for most crops. Cotton naturally will fruit very well under favorable conditions. This the county has had. Now, as the weather rely turns hot and dry, the cotton plant will shed off at least 50 per cent of the fruit. Local farmers are dividied on their opinions as to whether a good rain would be desirable. Cotton is still good, boll weevils are present only in spotted localities. The heaviest infestation being in the Maysfield vicinty. These farmers are poisoning for control.

Corn is maturing fast now. Prospects are good. Maize and hegaria also are maturing. Grain sorghum harvest will start last half of July. Local storage will be available at Southland Oil Mill where equipment is being installed to properly handle grain.

Hay crops are very good. There should be plenty of hay to sell this winter. There is some Sorgo on Valter Whites farm at Maysfield making 20 tons of silage per acre.

Good cantaloupe season just completed. Few late fields still producing. Watermelon crop good. Market does not look favorable to producer. Tomato crop fair —still [illegible] moderate number of fair grade tomatoes.

Gardeners Urged To Ready Land For Summer, Fall Crops

Farmers and home gardeners were urged this week by the local Farmers Home Administration officials to start preparing now for summer and fall plantings of vegetables.

They were advised to keep weed down and the soil plowed, then when the rains come, they were told, the ground will be ready for planting.

They were also advised to keep in mind that all maize crops that are mortgaged must have the proceeds applied to the individuals account when sold, and all weight tickets and sale slips should be taken immediately to the local F. H. A. office.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Haines and children visited here in the home of the Roy Barmores over the weekend.

County Health Unit Receives $600 Increase This Month; With $120 For T. B. Fund

Twenty-two additional tuberculosis suspects have been evaluated and two (possibly three) additional cases heve been found. The activity of these cases is being determined at present. Thus far 68 of the 79 suspects have been followed. The remaining eleven have not returned for follow - up or have moved. Forty-one persons were found to be non-tuberculous, sixteen have inactive tuberculosis, five are under evaluation, four new active cases were found and two were previously known active cases.

Preparation of the annual budget and securing the necessary appropriations from the various governing bodies has been a major activity of the Health Unit this month. An increase in budget from $19,360.00 to $19,966.00 or 3.1 per cent was obtained. Most of this went for small adjustments in salaries to meet the new Compensation Classification system effective Spetember 1, 1955. A $120.00 increase of funds for tuberculosis control was obtained. The present Health Unit budget is still far below the recommended minimum of one dollar per capita. The per capita expenditure has been increased from 74 cents to 76.7 cents this year.

Communicable diseases continue to show a decrease during June. The reported diseases were as follows: Gonorrhea 6, Streptococcal infections 27, Syphilis 3, Measles 3, Pertussis 3, Tuberculosis 2, Shigellosis 8, Mumps 6, Influenza 1, Chickenpox 6, and Infectious mononucleosis 2.

Clearance has been obtained for opening part-time clinics in Rockdale and Thorndale. Space is available in the Rockdale City Hall although this will be shared with the Executive Secretary of the Milam County Tuberculosis Association. As soon as furniture and equipment is moved in this clinic will start to function. As yet no suitable quarters have been secured for a clinic in Thorndale.

The Aluminum Company of America at Rockdale held an Industrial Hygiene Conference at its plant. The smelting process was explained and some of the industrial problems, particularly that of excess fluoride were discussed. ALCOA officials from the Pittsburgh office and the Point Comfort plant also attended the meeting. A tour of the plant, the lignite mining area and the generating plant was conducted by Rockdale ALCOA officials. Many embers of the State Health Department in Austin and the District Engineers' Office in Houston attended this meeting.

Regular routine inspections of food and other establishments have been made during the month of June. Some establishments are still in the process of remodeling and redecorating and adding new and more modern equipement.

State approval placards have been delivered to all tourist courts and trailer parks that qualified for State approval.

The Sanitarian has continued the program in the improvement and safety of private water supplies and sewage disposal facilities during the month.

The Sanitarian has been checking the schools and school cafeterias for the presence of roaches and other vermin and is treating those infested. This work is more effective during the summer recess than it would be during the school session.

The Sanitarian accompanied Mr. Charles E. Shaefer, District Engineer of the Houston office, on an inspection tour and survey of the Municipal Water and Sewage facilities in Cameron, Rockdale, and Thorndale.

All nuisance complaints coming to the attention of this office have been investigated and corrections have been made in a majority of the cases.

Production of Hubam sweet clover seed within the eastern half of the Little River-San Gabriel Soil Conservation District area is greater this year than at any time during the last five years, according of Adrian I. Moore, Soil Conservationist stationed at Bartlett. Harvesting operations are underway, he adds, and progressing nicely.

Yields of clover seed reflect wide variations over the district as a whole, with the highest per acre yield reported reaching hundred pounds of field run seed. farm operated by Eddie Kunts 4 miles northeast of Bartlett. It is anticipated, Moore state, that this yield may be exceeded in some insances.

All of the clover seed harvested to-date, which has been examined, is of a good quality. The seeds are well filled and moisture content has been reduced through windrowing of the plants two to 4 days prior to threshing ith a combine. The practice of windrowing the clover is widely employed, Moore says. It enables the seeds to be adequately dried prior to combining and thus eliminates the need of spreading and stirring to prevent heating following harvest.

Although enough seed will be produced to accommodate demands within the district, Moore states that many fields of second growth clover will produce profitable seed yields this year. Reference is made here to acreages of clover grown alone or in a mixture with small grain and harvested earlier for hay or grain. These clover fields are, for the most part, in a full bloom stage at present and will not be ready for harvest until the latter part of July. Seed harvest of this clover will probably be a matter of combining the seed direct without the benefit of windrowing and for this reason, a means of spreading and drying the seed should be worked out ahead of actual harvest. Expected yields from this clover range from 125 to 250 pounds per acre.

Mrs. R. L. Batte is at home recuperating after spending several days in a local hospital.
